How to Cure Drunkenness

It is generally understood that young persons when first employed as pastry cooks, are permitted to surfeit themselves to their heart's content on pies and sweetments, the result being that in a very short time they become perfectly callous to the charms of the counter. We learn from a valuable little book, recently published in London, called the 'The Home Nurse," that in the Austrian Army a method on a similar principle is adopted as a remedy for drunkenness, and medical reports state that out of 139 cases 128 cures of confirmed drunkards have been effected. The plan is as follows:

"The soldier taken in a state of intoxication, or purposely inebriated, is confined to his room, where his diet is carefully and amply supplied to him according to his choice. For drink he is allowed brandy and water, in the proportion of one-third brandy to two-thirds water. All his food is prepared in a weak solution of brandy and water. Coffee, with a small quantity of brandy, is also allowed him. At first the treatment throws the patient into a constant state of intoxication, and he sleeps much. At the end of three or four days he takes a dislike to his food and drink, and asks for a change; which request, were it acceded to, would entirely prevent the completion of the cure. On the contrary, it must now be persevered in until the patient can no longer swallow food, or drink, and even the smell revolts and nauseates the stomach, when the cure may be considered as effected. The shortest time for the continuance of the treatment is seven days the longest, nine. In order to prevent the congestion which might ensue, the patient must now be given gentle emetics—that is, one gram of emetic in a bottle of water, a wine glass full to be taken every quarter of an hour in the morning fasting. This is followed by forty grains of magnesia, daily, given in broth or gruel, placing the patient first on a low, light diet, and then gradually increasing to his original rations. If, during the first part of the treatment, spitting of blood or convulsions should result, it must not be persevered in, therefore this mode of remedy cannot, on any pretence whatever, be applied but by a medical man. In Lues in Anamnesis is also treated with Arsenic and Iodine combined. As a fourth part of the solution of unfortunate victims to that fatal habit, give him from ten to fifteen drops of ammonium. This will be sufficient to arouse the person as positively by a cannon as by a feather; it is necessary to give the ammonium when it will be in use it will generally act to the best advantage), when it will be observed that the patient will make use of his nose but a month at most may venture to apply the ammonia to the nostrils as not only injurious but fatal effects might ensue."

The Emperor of Germany

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]
It is stated by the King of Bavaria was taken by surprise by the proposition for the coronation made to that prince. That it was not known to the Bavarian Ministry. That it was not even discussed by the Council of Ministers. That the Ministry disapproved, believing the whole movement premature. That the Ministry is now in a state of consternation, as the controversy is disadvantageous to the Empire.
A revolt has broken out among the Taritars in China and at last accounts had reached alarming proportions. The rebels had seized many important points.

Bismarck's Terms of Peace

VERSAILLES, Jan 29—Bismarck's terms of peace offered to the French nation, are as follows:
1 Cession of Alsace and part of Lorraine, known as German Lorraine.
2 Money indemnity of one thousand millions of francs.
3 Forty war ships from the French navy.
4. One of the colonies now held by France, which I cannot learn. The money indemnity must be guaranteed by the municipalities of Paris, confiscated, the property of rich individuals to be taken possession of until acquiescence is obtained.
The state of Paris is terrible. The people are in arms, and sorties with 200 cannon are demanded. Gen Vinoy refusing to allow the useless butchery, Gen Lefiac was put in his place. The Reds demand a new government. Thirty members. The National Guard have elected for that purpose.
Three new batteries were erected to bombard Brissy and Lebourget, making 200 cannon in all.
It is expected that Belfort will yield before the 29th.

Telegram from American Embassy

WASHINGTON, Jan 29—Secretary Fish has received the following telegram from Mr. Washburn, charge de affaires at London, dated Sunday, 29th. The German Ambassador here is officially informed of the capitulation of all Paris forts, and an armistice of three weeks by land and sea was signed about 10 o'clock last night at Versailles by Bismarck and Favre. The army of Paris will remain prisoners of war in the city, but it is not known whether they will be disarmed or not.

An Imperial Scheme.

VERSAILLES, Jan 27—The Prince Imperial to be the future Emperor, with the Empress Regent.
A large force will be immediately dispatched in pursuit of Chanzy.

Dispatches from Versailles

VERSAILLES, Jan 29—German troops occupied the forts around Paris at 10 o'clock this morning.
Prince Frederick William will hereafter be styled Imperial Highness and Crown Prince of Germany.
LONDON, Jan 29—Emperor William has sent the following to the Empress Augusta:
VERSAILLES, Jan 29—At 2 P. M. last night an armistice of three weeks was signed. The Regulars and Mobiles are to be retained in Paris as prisoners of war. The National Guards will undertake the maintenance of order. We occupy all the forts. Paris remains invested; but will be allowed to revictual as soon as armistice is ratified. The National Assembly is to be convened at Bordeaux in a fortnight. All armies in the field will retain their respective positions. The ground between the opposing lines is to be neutral. (Signed,) WILHELM.
BERLIN, Jan 29—All of Germany is in a fever of rejoicing.
LONDON, Jan 29—A Versailles dispatch just received says the 12th Saxon corps at 10 o'clock to-day occupied Clarence, Montrouge and Vanves. The Silesian corps occupied Ivry and Bicetre. Immediately after the occupation of the forts by the Germans, the Provisional Government, still retaining its authority in Paris, will summon a National Assembly, which body will decide on the form of the future government of France.

TO THE DISAFFECTED—The Cincinnati Commoner, a strongly Democratic paper warns its readers that the downfall of the Grant Administration must not be looked for on account of the defection of certain individuals or party cliques. It reminds them that General Jackson passed through personal attacks ten times as severe. "The resignation of the Calhoun men in his cabinet, especially of Branch, of North Carolina and McPherson of Georgia, was an ordeal, compared to which, Cox's resignation was but a fleabite. His Marysville veto lost him scores of friends who held commanding positions. And so it was throughout his administration and yet he left Washington the most popular man in the United States, in April 1837. The history of Jackson's administration proves that power is not taken from Presidents because they displease this or that individual or coterie of individuals; it is lost but by one process, and that is through the positive measures of the administration itself."

Xenia (Ohio) girls are said to have a pleasing habit of kissing strangers in the street and then wildly screaming, "Oh, my! I thought it was cousin Charlie!"

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 30.

Particulars of the Fall of Paris

The Course of the Negotiations.

VERSAILLES, Jan 27.—On Monday, Jan 23, a flag of truce left the French lines and was met by the Germans. The bearer delivered a letter from Jules Favre addressed to Count Bismarck. At noon the missive reached Bismarck. It requested permission for Favre to come to Versailles. He replied that he might. At 10 o'clock the same night the Prussian Premier applied to the Emperor of Germany for permission to hold an interview with him. Favre spent the night at the quarters of the Prefect of Police. Next day before noon, the 24th, a council of war was held to consider Favre's mission. Gen Von Roon, Bismarck, Von Moltke and the Crown Prince of Prussia were present. The Crown Prince, who presided. The result of the council was that the same evening Favre was to proceed to Versailles, with full powers. The capitulation was signed the same evening. Favre was to proceed to Paris, with full honors, and take possession of the unoccupied district of France under the agreement, and not resume hostilities for 15 days months to be agreed upon and that there would be no triumphant entry into Paris by the Germans. The terms were referred by the Council which informed Favre that the only basis to render was the same as Sedan and Metz.

Dispatch via London

LONDON, Jan 29.—A strong influence at work favoring the restoration of the Bonaparte family under a Regency composed of Trochu and Favre.
The Emperor will not enter Paris but will return to Berlin on Tuesday, leaving the Crown Prince in command of the Prussians.
The capitulation and armistice settle nothing politically, nor do they insure the ending of the war. All depend on the Assembly.

Rejoicing in Germany

BERLIN, Jan 29.—The city is in a perfect blaze and excitement now that the capitulation of Paris is known.

The London Conference

LONDON, Jan 29.—There is a rumor in circulation that Favre will come to London to confer with Gladstone. The bearer of the dispatches to Favre, who is now at Versailles, will proceed to Paris the same evening. Favre is expected to arrive at Versailles with full powers, and take the same train for London.
Bourbaki attempted suicide by shooting himself in the head. His life is despaired of.

Movements on the Swiss Frontier

BERNE, Jan 29.—The Germans have commenced to Campagnol in the rear of the French, who are endeavored to prevent pursuit by barricading the roads. Fugitives from the French army are crossing into Switzerland.

A Denial by Bismarck

LONDON, Jan 29.—Bismarck has refused to return the Emperor.

The Italian Capital

FLORENCE, Jan 29.—The Chamber of Deputies has voted to remove the Italian Capital to Rome by a vote of 192 to 90.

Miscellaneous Telegrams

LONDON, Jan 29.—The cholera is epidemic in Gladstone, the Premier, and Lord Granville, Minister of Foreign Affairs, have been confined to their residences with severe colds.
Commerce reports that the Mayor of Manchester has declared that the Manchester Chamber of Commerce will not petition Parliament for the repeal of the income tax, as the tax is not felt by the manufacturing classes, and the repeal would benefit the rich alone.
The Prussian Government has ordered the arrest of Jacoby, the Democratic leader, who is charged with high treason

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 31, 1871.

Government Expenditures in Oregon.

It has always been our misfortune to be compelled to furnish information and instruction for successive editors of the Herald; and so dense has been the ignorance of the whole line of them, and so proverbial have they been for stupid errors, that we suppose we shall always have to continue the course of instruction. None of them have ever yet possessed any accurate knowledge on any important subject; and the present editor, in many respects, surpasses all his predecessors in the clumsy art of blundering.

A few days ago we stated that the Government annually expends in Oregon, for the benefit and protection of the State, much larger sums than it has collected in taxes, and remarked that a Government does not impoverish its people when it expends among them two or three times as much money as it raises among them by taxation.

To this the editor of the Herald, who is always jumping at conclusions, on subjects which he has never investigated, replies by parading the amount of taxes, direct and indirect, collected by the Government in Oregon during the last fiscal year, which foots up in the aggregate to $454,117 93; and with all the air of superior wisdom proceeds to comment in this supercilious way:

"We would call upon the OREGONIAN to produce its figures of the disbursements made by the General Government during the same period of time. We want to see the figures which will justify the above assertion which that paper has been in the habit of making periodically as a sort of general bluff. Nothing but the official figures, such as we give above will satisfy us. We know that the General Government does not legitimately pay that amount to this State even rounding the salary of the Federal Judge of this district and that of the editor of the OREGONIAN as Collector of Customs. If it does pay twice the above amount out in Oregon, as is asserted by our cotemporary, we want to know how, why, and to whom it has been paid. Now we want the OREGONIAN to put up its figures or shut up its bluffing. The empty assertions of that paper upon the above topic have been handled all too freely for the past two years.

Now mark how plain a tale shall put down the self-sufficient but grossly ignorant writer of the above paragraph.

Perhaps he will be somewhat disconcerted to learn that the expense of supplying Oregon with mails each year over and above the postal [illegible] to more than the entire sum of internal revenue collections in the State. By reference to the report of the Postmaster General for 1868–69 (we have not at hand the report in detail for 1869–'70, but the one for the preceding year will answer for every purpose of illustration), it will be seen that the expenditures of the Post Office Department in Oregon for that year amounted to $194,119 23, and that the excess of expenses over receipts amounted to $154,018 86, making in this single item of disbursement by the General Government in the State of Oregon the sum of $11,858 63 more than was collected in that year through the internal revenue taxes. We can hardly doubt that for the year 1869–'70 the expense of carrying the mails in Oregon over receipts, was much greater inasmuch as the daily west side line and a number of other costly routes were established after the publication of the above-named report. But conceding that the expense for last year was no greater than the year before, and we have already a sum paid out in the State by the Government, for mail service alone, many thousands of dollars in excess of the whole internal revenue collections.

We now proceed to other items. By consulting the finance report for 1870, just issued we find that the amount expended by the Government in erecting the custom house in this city during the year 1870, was $54,474 31 for the custom house at Astoria during the same period, $14,432 34; for the branch mint at the Dalles $54,146 75. Total, $122,853 40. This sum exceeds the total amount of duties on imports collected last year in the district in Oregon. These two, internal revenue and customs, are the only sources of Federal taxation, and in the two items of expenditure which we have pointed out, namely the mails and the Government buildings in this city at Astoria and at the Dalles, we find an amount of disbursements exceeding the sum total of all the Federal taxes, direct and indirect, collected in the State. Does the dummy of the Herald begin to see how grossly he has blundered?

But we are not half done yet. A lighthouse has just been completed at Cape Blanco at a cost of $25,000. An appropriation of an equal sum is made for a lighthouse at Yaquina Bay. The Government annually expends large sums in improving our rivers. One appropriation for the improvement of the Willamette below this city has just been exhausted. Congress at its last session appropriated $31,000 more for the same purpose and work will shortly begin again. Last summer a survey was made by the Government of the upper Willamette and the Umpqua with a view of ascertaining what sums would be required for the improvement of navigation in those streams and the survey has been reported on favorably for an appropriation. Work on the Government buildings in the State will go on during the present year at outlay equal to that of last year. We mention these facts to show that the disbursements of the Government in the State for the above purposes are to go on steadily.

The annual appropriation for surveys of public lands in Oregon is about $30,000. The appropriations for the Indian service in the State at the last session of Congress amounted to $136,000 exclusive of pay to agents and other officers. The whole expenditures of the Government in Oregon on account of the Indians is upwards of $150,000 per annum. All this money ultimately goes into the hands of our people and passes into the channels of circulation.

But we have not yet mentioned the greatest item of all, viz, the army. For several years past the disbursements of the Government for the military service in this department have exceeded one million dollars per annum. We have it from official authority that the disbursements here on account of the quartermaster's department alone for the last year were about $400,000. We have not an official statement of the amount expended by the commissary department, but it must have been nearly as much more. And it should be remembered that the disbursements in the military service are now much smaller than they were a few years ago. Most of the money expended in this department on account of the army has been expended in Oregon. This city has been and still is the center of the extensive business thus created. The money paid for subsistence of the troops, for transportation and supplies of nearly every kind, all goes into the pockets of our people. Is not this money paid out by the Government "for the benefit and protection of the State?" Oregon's share of the money disbursed in this military department "for benefit and protection" exceeds the total amount of taxes that she pays to the General Government.

Approximately, then, we sum up the case thus:

Amount annually expended, in excess of receipts, for carrying the mails	$ 554,018
Amount expended last year in buildings, including lighthouses	147,851
Surveys of public lands	30,000
Disbursements in the State on account of Indians	150,000
Disbursements in the State on account of the army	500,000
Total	$1,151,869
Deduct amount of taxes paid by the State	457,117
Excess of expenditures	$ 727,544

This statement of disbursements is exceedingly low, and no person can question that if the actual official figures were at hand for all the items the aggregate would be larger than the above. For instance, we have put the army disbursements for this State at only half a million, though Oregon's share in the disbursements of this Military Department are undoubtedly much greater than this sum. Nor have we included any estimate for river improvements and construction of fortifications. But we have in the above exhibit presented exact official figures, taken from the official reports, which show an amount of expenditure by the Government in this State far exceeding the amount of taxes paid in return. There the figures are. They are unanswerable. Now let us have an end of the puling jargon of the Herald and of the Oregon City Enterprise, that the people of Oregon are being impoverished by Federal taxation.

To close with an observation we made in a former article: "We submit that a Government does not impoverish its people when it expends among them two or three times as much money as it raises among them by taxation."

End of the French Crusades.

France, the world may now hope, has been fully taught by her bitter experience and terrible humiliations the wicked folly of those ideas of "glory" which were inaugurated with the great revolution, which were followed under Napoleon the First till they brought an enemy into Paris, which provoked the present war with Germany, and which have now brought an enemy into Paris again. France has long been crusading on the rest of Europe; her whole people have been actuated by a vague unrest which has sought a vent in outward movements on the surrounding nations. Her present overthrow is the natural fruit of such a spirit. She is now just where the ideas of the revolution have landed her. Henceforth it may be expected that France will be kept within bounds. She may now learn something of international justice, occupy herself more with her own affairs, meddle less with the affairs of other countries, and cease to think of making descents for "glory's" sake and for purposes of plunder on neighboring nations. If her present humiliation at the hands of Germany shall instruct her in these things, the lesson may ultimately prove a profitable one. The great result of this war will be to keep at home.

It can hardly be supposed that the war will be continued longer. The most unreasoning of the French people will now see the folly of attempting further resistance. France has made a good fight since Sedan, considering the resources at her disposal. But the contest was a hopeless one; and to continue now, after Paris has fallen, would be downright madness. Peace, no doubt, will soon be concluded. The terms will be whatever Germany is minded to require. France having been the aggressor, and being now at the mercy of her adversary, has nothing to do but to pay whatever forfeit Germany chooses to exact.

The indications are that Germany will leave France measurably free to choose her own form of government. This will be greatly to the honor of the Germans, who only require indemnity and security, and do not wish to govern France. It may be expected, however, that German troops will hold some of the principal places in France for a considerable time, in order to make sure of the fulfillment of French guarantees.

The Herald is as submissive as a child to the castigation given it by Senator Fay through the Jacksonville Times. It is certainly an extraordinary degree of fortitude that enables the "organ" to come down from its self-created "mentorship" and receive such a severe kicking and cuffing as the exasperated Senator administers to it. Not even the meekest remonstrance is made by the recently arrogant "organ" to the ignominious drubbing it is receiving. It bears the lash with a degree of resignation that could only be paralleled in a moribund mule.

It appears that the bill to abolish the income tax which passed the Senate last week is not the same bill that passed the House early in the session. Therefore the tax is not abolished, and the two Houses are having some controversy over it. The Senate, it appears, did not act on the House bill to abolish the tax, but passed a bill of its own. This the House objects to, and it is possible that the tax will not be abolished this session.

The "organ" thinks it remarkably smart to take up a paragraph of ours, and substituting the word "Radical" for "Democratic," repeat the paragraph as its own. Such parrotry very well becomes an organ which the Democratic journal at Eugene says never had an original idea and can give no reason for its continued existence.

CALIFORNIA POLITICS.

Capt. John Mullan, of "Mullan's road" celebrity, is now in Sacramento and will be a candidate for Surveyor General before the Democratic State Convention.

Lewis Cunningham, of Yuba county, who while representing that county in the State Senate, a few years since, was called the "watch dog of the Treasury," is mentioned as an aspirant for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Charles A. Merrill announces himself as an aspirant for the Republican Congressional nomination to succeed Axtell, the sublidextrous. He will probably be the Settlers' and Workingmen's candidate for the same position.

The Sacramento Reporter, the State paper, declares that legal advertising don't pay. Says the Reporter, "We wouldn't go across the street to keep the position of State paper!" "And to this complexion must we come at last!" after all the log rolling and wire pulling necessary to pass the bill! Why don't the Reporter throw it up as a bad job?

The Yreka Journal says: Gov. Haight's whole claim to firmness on the railroad question, rests in his antipathy to corporations that opposed his election, and in his spite bought up or influenced Senators who had voted for the Southern Pacific railroad bill to twist around and sustain his veto, one of whom don't live quite a thousand miles from here. He approved other railroad bills more outrageous, such as the Pluman bill, and approved a general railroad law, by which Supervisors were permitted to ask Mr. A. whether Mr. B. should be taxed for the benefit of Mr. C., the least meritorious bill ever passed to aid railroad companies. His vacillating record is sufficient to prove that his influence can be secured by the railroad monopolies in favoring his elevation to the United States Senate, just as Kelly got elected in Oregon—by flopping over.

WASHINGTON FACT AND GOSSIP.

The services of 543 assistant assessors of Internal Revenue have been dispensed with. This reduction effects a saving to the Government of nearly $500,000 per annum. It is estimated that a further reduction of quite 200 assistant assessors will be made.

Major Bowen, on being relieved, is ordered to San Francisco, to relieve Major H. M. Roberts of his duties as engineer officer on the staff of the commanding officer of the Military Division of the Pacific. Major Roberts is to report to the Secretary of the Treasury, to duty on lighthouse establishment.

The Senate Finance Committee have instructed Senator Williams to report a bill increasing the compensation of all heads of bureaus to $4,500 per annum. This includes the Auditors and Comptrollers of the Treasury, the Assistant Postmasters General, and the Commissioners of the General Land Office, Pensions and Patents.

Illinois members of Congress are informed that no special election will be held to fill the vacancy occasioned by General Logan's election to the Senate, but that his successor will be chosen at a regular State election, next fall. The Governor thinks that the State can better afford to have one Representative less than her quota during the short session of the Forty-Second Congress than paying the expenses of holding a special election this month.

Mr. Edmunds presented to the Senate on the 14th, a monster petition, having over one thousand signatures of prominent women throughout the land, protesting against universal suffrage. Among the signers appear the names of Mrs. General Sherman, Mrs. Judge Bradley, Mrs. Giles Smith, Mrs. Charles Ewing, Mrs. C. C. Wood, Mrs. Jacob D. Cox, Mrs. Eugene Casserly, Mrs. John Sherman, Mrs. Professor Henry, Mrs. L. P. Poland, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. George F. Edmunds, Mrs. Admiral L. Powell, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Mary E. Sutherland, Mrs. Hugh McCulloch, Mrs. Samuel L. Randall, Mrs. Dr. Rankin, Mrs. T. H. Patterson, Mrs. H. Battus. It was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Relative to the appointment of Major Willis Drummond, recently appointed Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Dubuque Times says: "As Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Mr. Delano has come in contact with Mr. Drummond, and had conceived a very high opinion of his honesty, his energy, and of his ability, particularly as Mr. Drummond had refused under the law to take a moiety of the forfeitures to which as supervisor, he was entitled, on the ground that he did not want his official actions to be influenced by any pecuniary results to himself. From these favorable impressions of Mr. Drummond's character Mr. Delano concluded that he was just the man desired for Commissioner, telegraphed for him to come on to Washington, and offered him the place without consultation with any one else. In our judgment the appointment is as creditable to the Secretary as it is complimentary to Mr. Drummond."

CURRENT NOTES.

Meriden, Ct., has voted $8000 for a soldiers' monument, and an additional sum is to be raised by [illegible]. The monument will probably be the first in the State.

New Haven and Hartford are again agitated over the question of a single capital for Connecticut. Hartford wants one and to be that one; New Haven wants two and to remain one of the two.

Orville Grant, the President's brother, was knocked down and severely injured the other night. His watch and revolver were taken from him while he lay in an insensible condition on the sidewalk.

That was a rude doctor who advised his female patient, after feeling her pulse, that she only needed rest. "But look at my tongue, doctor," which he did, remarking, "that needs rest, too." He lost that patient.

Selma, Alabama, expects to receive 70,000 bales of cotton this season. Already 46,336 bales have been received, and 38,297 shipped. The stock on hand is 11,861 bales. The total receipts last year were 57,385.

The marble statue of General Greene, ordered by the State of Rhode Island for the National Capitol, has been put in its place, but that of Roger Williams, in the hands of Franklin Simmons, has not yet been completed.

A joint stock company of $150,000 capital has been formed at Marysville for the purpose of building a hotel, to be erected under the supervision of Ira A. Eaton, of Nevada. He will take charge of it as landlord when completed.

One of the Baptist churches of Chicago is to have a chime of seventeen bells, covering two octaves, one of the largest in the United States. The largest bell, a B flat, weighs nearly four thousand pounds, and the cost of the whole will be $7000.

The Milwaukee Sentinel, which has just triumphantly vindicated Socrates against the uncalled-for and malicious assaults of the Indianapolis Journal, has chivalrously stepped forward as the champion of the much-maligned Eve, and denounces Adam, most unhesitatingly, as a sneak.

The leading Democratic paper of Ohio, the Cincinnati Enquirer, thinks that Governor Hoffman has not very maturely considered the financial ideas he puts forth in his Message; but as he laid down false premises to start from, it is not surprised that he came to such false conclusions.

An Indianian threatened suicide and went down cellar for the purpose, as he informed his wife. Soon the report of a pistol was heard from the subterraneous apartment. His wife kept right on knitting, and after awhile the man came up stairs, swearing that the woman hadn't got any feeling.

A correspondent of the Portland Transcript claims to have in his possession a diary of Nathaniel Hawthorne, kept in 1816, found in the neighborhood of the old Hawthorne home in Raymond, Me., and in which the boyish thoughts and fancies of the great word-painter are written out.

A scrap of paper has been presented to the St. Louis Historical Society, bearing the following certificate: "I certify that I gave permission to Benjamin Gardner to satel on a pies of vacant land cold Little Purvary, on the Missury, some time in December, 1802. Given under my hand the 23d Day of Febury, 1806. DANIEL BOONE."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Under the new apportionment bill reported by the House Judiciary Committee California will be entitled to an additional Congressman, giving that State four in all.

From the New York Herald: A Democratic paper out West has changed its name from Copperhead to Democrat. This may be a distinction without a difference, but it shows that the term "Copperhead" is becoming distasteful to sensible Democrats.

There is a rumor that Governor John T. Hoffman is a believer in the antiquated theory that two and two make four. Those who are circulating this scandalous cite in confirmation of it this sentence from his last message: "If the Federal Treasury were redeeming its notes in coin the notes would be worth as much as gold."

The Springfield Republican, in speculating on the Democratic nominee for President in 1872, opines that Hoffman can't get it, because he belongs to the "Tammany ring," of which the people and themselves "see the evil of their ways" too clearly. Pendleton is too much of a Copperhead, repudiator and paper money theorist. Hendricks would stand well with the rocks of the party, but the same objection can be urged against him as Pendleton. Were Mr. Chase in as good health in 1872 as he was in 1868 he would be the man, but now his paralysis prevents that effectually. If his health improves the Democrats may possibly retrieve their egregious and bitterly repented error of 1868. The man who now stands best, according to the Republican, is Judge Thurman, of Ohio.

The report that the French intended to introduce George Francis Train to Bismarck, with the deliberate purpose of having the Chancellor talked to death, is now declared to have no foundation. The French may have had some such design; but they knew, if they carried it out, that they could never afterward lay any claim to civilized warfare

The First Lecture of the Course will be delivered by the REV. THOS. CONDON, of The Dalles, on Tuesday Evening, Jan'y 31, 1871,

At 7½ o'clock

Subject—"A Description of Three Stone Heads, The Country from which They Came and The Times in which They Lived."

The Science of Geology is assuming so much importance in its relations to historical questions, especially to the Creation and the Race of Man, that every one should know something of its principles and keep pace with its results.

The Rev. Mr Condon has given many years to the study of this, his favorite science, and can give more general information on the subject in a single lecture than can be gleaned by months of reading. He has made the Geology of Oregon a Specialty, and by his untiring efforts and at great expense, has collected a fine cabinet of Specimens, many of which will be on exhibition the evening of the Lecture. As a speaker he is plain, consecutive and comprehensive, and although he is obliged to travel over a vast field while the limits assigned, yet he does not disappoint by unsatisfactory brevity or evasive generalities. Those who heard him last winter need no other inducement to come again; and to those who did not we can promise a literary feast.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 31, 1871.

CITY.

SUNDAY EXCURSION TO KALAMA.—The steamer Vancouver went down to Kalama and back on Sunday taking a large number of excursionists. A gentleman, who was of the party, informs us that the trip was something like going out into the wilderness to see a reed shaken in the wind. The sight seers saw only an ordinary river steamboat landing, a river bottom much like that in front of East Portland, except that it is covered with brush, and one that will require just as much fill to get above high water; back of this a bluff which rises pretty steep for a few rods, and then a good deal steeper as it attains the height of one hundred feet or more, and on top of this bluff a forest of heavy timber, a small stream just about big enough to run a saw mill; a few little board shanties, one or two of them containing small stocks of goods; some preparations for other buildings, etc., etc. Our informant saw nothing that he wanted to buy; but he thinks it will make a pretty good lumbering camp, and that that is about the purpose for which the company intends.

How differently people will see these things. There are plenty of men who see here the germ of a great metropolitan and commercial city, and who are undergoing the inconvenience and hardships of a half civilized life in order to be in at the beginning and to realize great fortunes by the growth of population and rise of real estate. One man who used to deal in stocks and cash, is digging a pick and shovel; another who has figured as a Federal officer in a neighboring Territory, is preparing to bury himself in a contiguous forest on a pre-emption claim, feeling certain that the roar of a great busy mart will some of these days wake him up to the possession of riches; another, sanguine that soil anywhere thereabouts will pan out rich, has erected a cabin and begun life as a prospective millionaire on the little prairie by nine pile of sand, called and island, in front of the Kalama landing; and so on, while hundreds of people from the interior are every week visiting the place to see what they can see, not one of whom but has an undefined idea that he is looking upon a spot destined to be of importance in the future of this country.

FROM VICTORIA AND PUGET SOUND.—The N. P. T. Co's propeller California, John Hayes, Commander arrived at half past 1 A. M., yesterday from Puget Sound via Victoria. Memoranda. Left Portland at 10 P M, the 19th; arrived at Astoria at 2 A M, the 20th, and left at 9.30 A M, towing a steam a river bar at 11:45 A M; arrived at Neah Bay at 11 A M, the 21st, and left at 1 P M, arrived at Port Townsend at 8:10 P M, and left at 11 A M, the 22d, arrived at Seattle at 11 A M, and left at 12:30 P M; arrived at Olympia at 6 P M, and left at 8 A M; arrived at Victoria at 1 A M the 24th and left at 7 A M, the 26th put in at Neah Bay on stress of weather at 4 P M, the 27th; arrived at the mouth of the Columbia river bar at 5:30 P M, the 28th, and left at 7 A M, and crossed Monday morning the 30th at 9 A M, arrived at Astoria at 1 A M, and left at 2 M arrived at Portland at 4 A M, the 30th.

She brought the following named passenger Col L H Briggs and wife, John W Anderson and wife, J W Keyser, M Lehman, A Pugh, S Marshall, Wm Nelson, Miss Lizzie Watson, A J Watson, Henry Smith, Capt. J Selden, J D Warner, Rosenstein, Joseph Sorrell, and three Chinamen.

THE OREGON NORTH.—The following is the steamship [illegible] Wm. Davis, [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co., 1 parcel clothes and 1 paper pkg Wasserman & Co., 1 box mdse Bishop St. Helens Hall [illegible], Corbitt & Mackay, 2 kegs butter mdse. Ohren, Holmes, 1 tool chest, N Bacon 3 trunks clothing, [illegible] tools and 1 pkg maps, Allen & Lewis, 2 bbls cranberries A Thomas, 1 chest and 1 trunk Miss B. Hall and Astoria, 1 box mdse Everding & [illegible], 1 case mdse and 1 case [illegible] boot. The Mountaineer—G L Hibbard, 449 gals dog fish oil; R Pittock & Co, 1 bbl oat-meal and 5 bbls flour; Stock Jarman & Rhodes 12 cs; factory goods, Fargo & Co. 4 pkgs express [illegible], 4 pkgs, 1 carpet bag A M [illegible], 5 bxs fish and 3 bbls fresh oysters D Davis, 1 keg salt [illegible].

A MEDICAL MOVEMENT.—The Homœopathic physicians and their friends of this coast are making a movement to [illegible] a medical college in the [illegible] National Washington University, a charter of which is now pending in Congress. To this end they are circulating petitions which are to be presented to Congress praying that body to add to the charter for the National Washington University an amendment which shall provide, without possible cessation, a professorship in the teaching of the theory and practice of Homœopathy in the curriculum of Medical studies of said University." The patriotic sets forth numerous facts calculated to show the justice of the claim of this branch of the medical fraternity to a place in the National school. Dr McKinnell of this city was yesterday circulating one of these petitions which will be forwarded in due time to the members in the Senate.

FOR CONGRATULATIONS.—There was much excitement among our German friends, yesterday, over the war dispatches from Paris, notwithstanding such news had been for some time confidently expected. The excitement was, of course, antirebellion in character though we saw no indications of demonstrations which could be offensive to French residents, or at least not more so than was contained in the dispatches. Steps were taken, late in the afternoon, to fire a salute in honor of the German victory at Paris, but for some reason the guns were not fired probably there was not time to perfect the arrangements.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.—Wm. Adams of the Vancouver [illegible] suggests since it has been determined that Mount Hood is not the highest peak in the Cascade range, that an extra session of the Legislature of Oregon ought to be called immediately, to make a draft on the school fund for the improvement of Oregon snow peaks; [illegible] of the ring shall jump the venerable hole-in-the-ground as a swamp and overflowed lands." The suggestion is timely, but we don't see exactly the way to save the mountain from the ring by calling upon the ring for help.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Rev. Mr. Condon of the Dalles will deliver, this evening at Philharmonic Hall, the [illegible] be series of lectures for which arrangements have been made by the Young Men's Christian Association. He will treat of the science of geology, as related particularly to the Pacific coast and we do not need to reiterate the statement that he will afford an intensely interesting talk. The Vieuxtemp Brothers will add to the attractions of the entertainment by furnishing a few instrumental and vocal pieces of music, before and after the lecture.

DETAINED.—The steamer California, which arrived yesterday morning, reports that when she came in Sunday morning over the Columbia bar, the steamers Idaho and Geo. S. Wright were at anchor in Baker's Bay, detained from going to sea by a rough bar. The California came in with the sea, while the others if they crossed would have to go against it. There is a good deal of difference between coming in and going out with a heavy sea. The first may be done with comparative safety, while the latter might be exceedingly dangerous or impossible.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—Mr. John Nation, who is one of the pioneer machinists of Oregon, and for a long time the Superintendent of the Willamette Iron Works in this city, has opened an office at 108 Front street, as a Mechanical Engineer, and will give his attention to contracting for, and superintending the construction of, all sorts of machinery. Mr. Nation's success in the past in this line of business, is his best recommendation for the present and future.

G. W. FORD, THE SUPPOSED SUICIDE.—No clue to the fate or the whereabouts (if living) of this man has yet been found. The Register says that his family who were, at the time of his disappearance, on their way out to join him here, are now at Hayward's, Alameda county, California, awaiting definite information from him.

VAGRANCY.—Four of five persons were arrested yesterday and taken before the Police Judge on charges of vagrancy. One of them who had been up before on the same charge, was sent to jail for five days. One was sent before the County Judge to be examined for insanity, and the others were let off with a reprimand.

CORRECT.—We are informed that the ladies of East Portland are about to petition for the removal of Dr. Loryea from the office of postmaster. Serve him right.

MESSAGE UNCALLED FOR.—There is a message in the telegraph office for John M. Jones.

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The pretty little drama of Bon Bolt was performed last night to another good audience and with great eclat. The last scene and tableau received an enthusiastic encore, and the audience wouldn't let up till the curtain went up. The applause, even then, continued till some time after the curtain was rung down. The entire play went off in excellent style, as did the afterpiece—"Lend Me Five Shillings."

BENEFIT TO MISS NELLIE CUMMINGS.—This very worthy young actress will take a benefit this evening at Oro Fino, and for the occasion the elegant comedy entitled "The Little Treasure," will be produced, for the first time in this city. The beneficiary will play in the role of Gertrude, or the Little Treasure, supported by Mrs. Bates and the entire company. The entertainment will conclude with the dashing comedy of the "Married Rake," Mrs. Bates as the Widow Tricetac. The public ought to give the young benificiary a good house, and we doubt not they will.

THE COURTS.

MONDAY, Jan. 30, 1871.

CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—Martha Chappelle vs. Cyrus Olney; action to recover money. In this case it appearing that said Cyrus Olney died, ordered that J. G. Hustler and Henry S. Aiken, executors of the last will of said Olney, be made defendants herein, and that the cause continue against such defendants, and that the demurrer heretofore filed to the complaint herein be overruled; and upon stipulation and agreement of the parties, judgment was entered in favor of said plaintiff against such executors as aforesaid for the sum of $6,000 gold coin and costs.

The Court adjourned to Monday next.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

MONDAY, Jan. 30, 1871.

Lownsdale heirs to Lester Noy Riley, lots 5 and 6 in block 209; quit claim deed; date, Jan. 13, 1871.

Michael Brown and wife to William Donovan; the east half of lot 2 in block 35, in Couch's Addition; warranty deed; date, Jan. 21, 1871; consideration, $1,600.

James C. Van Rensselaer and wife to P. A. Marquam; the undivided half of one hundred and thirty acres of land, being a part of the donation claim of Thomas Stephens, in township 1 south, range 1 east; warranty deed; date, Jan. 20, 1871; consideration, $1,706 25.

B. Trainer, attorney in fact for Wm. McLaughlin, to Christian Wagley; the remaining portion of a tract of 80½ acres of said Wm. McLaughlin, in section 36, township 1 north, range 1 east; warranty deed; date, Jan. 21, 1871; consideration, $1,462 50.

THE STATE OF SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.—We clip the subjoined paragraph from the Commercial Herald of the 20th: "At this date we have a fair export trade for flour—extra to ports in Central America, and superfine for China. Besides, our local demand is considerable, and this will be augmented by the prevailing high prices for rice. The very superior quality of our extra flour is now attracting attention abroad, and orders are now coming to us, calling for particular brands. Millers manufacture only high grades bearing their brands and thus, like Gallego and Hazall, will build up a world wide reputation for their products. Oregon millers are also, doing this to some extent, striving hard to secure regular customers in this city; and to this end they have attained a good degree, securing many of our large hotels and bakeries, who already give them a preference over all others. Barley holders are less sensibly weakened in their ideas of price, and are now freely offering to sell at considerable abatements from rates recently demanded. Oats and corn are without movement, and prices somewhat nominal. Rice has advanced considerably of late but the rise is looked upon as temporary. So also of potatoes they have risen in value, owing to the non arrival of vessels from the north wind bound. Onions are also a shade dearer. Beans are stock, at low prices. Bran continues scarce and high. Hops are neglected. Rye and buckwheat are quite nominal. Flax commands old rates. Mustard is out of season—crop exhausted. Wool is out of stock, the heavy last year's clip all marketed. Hides show a slight weakening in prices from those ruling in December, out of sympathy of a decline in New York. Tallow is very dull and prices both low and nominal. The receipts of dairy products are quite large, though from this time on we shall look for increased supplies as the result of improved pasturage. During the week several carloads of beef cattle arrived by rail from over the mountains. They have come through in good condition, and compare favorably with our own stock. No shipments of slaughtered beef have come over the railroad this winter, as the experiments of last season did not prove satisfactory. Prices remain substantially the same as last week with the exception of an advance in Pork, which is scarce and high."

EXPORTS TO CALIFORNIA.—During the first twenty days of this month, the receipts at San Francisco of certain articles of Oregon produce were as follows: Flour, qr sks, 35,438; wheat, sks, 218; oats, sks, 25; salmon, bbls, 119; lard bbls, 290; bacon, pkgs, 46; beef, bbls, 9; hams, pkgs, 66; lard, pkgs, 26; pork, bbls, 56; dried apples, pkgs, 118.

VESSELS BOUND FOR PORTLAND.—The bark Niobe sailed from Boston, January 3d, for the Columbia river.

The schooner Lonet Peacock sailed Dec. 15th from Honolulu for Portland.

FOR VICTORIA AND PUGET SOUND.—The N. P. T. Co's propeller steamship California, Hays, Commander, will sail for Victoria and Olympia, via Sound ports, at 4 o'clock P. M. Wednesday, Feb. 1st.

DOCK HIM FOR LOST TIME.—Mark Twain, in his humorous lectures on the "Sandwich Islands," tells the following little story in illustration of meanness:

"A company in Lower California had a man at work drilling and blasting rocks. He had drilled a hole about four feet deep, put in the charge, and was tamping it down with an iron bar about nine feet long, when a premature explosion occurred. Up went the man, still grasping the iron bar, till he looked no larger than a boy; up, till he looked no larger than a doll; still upward, and he looked no larger than a bee; higher yet, and he was out of sight. Presently he reappeared, apparently the size of a bee; he continued to descend, till he looked as large as a doll; nearer he came and looked the size of a boy; down, down, till—strange to relate—he struck the very tracks he stood in before, and resumed his tamping as if nothing had happened. You wouldn't believe it, it was so mean, but that man wasn't gone from his work more than fifteen minutes, yet, the company docked him for lost time."

FEVER AND AGUE.—Why shake? PLANTATION BITTERS will positively cure any form of intermittent fever. Travel through any region where the malady prevails, and all who have tried the preparation will tell you so. Thousands of families in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, and on the borders of the Southern rivers and swamps, regard it as a specific for the complaint. Nothing could induce them to be without it; and they begin to take it regularly at the commencement of the Spring and at the close of Summer, as a safeguard against malaria. They show their wisdom thereby. The shivering plague never dares their door without intruding, to smite their neighbors who have shown less forecast. Every year, however, the number of these improvident victims decreases. There is no exception like experience; and when a shaking and burning fever sees his friend on the next farm or plantation using a fever bitter, though breathing the same atmospheric poison as himself, and learns that the exception to the complaint is due to PLANTATION BITTERS.

The President's Message Against the Ku Klux

From the Washington Chronicle, Jan. 8.

Had the Senate been in session on Friday the President would have sent in a reply to Senator Morton's resolution calling for information as to the condition of affairs in North Carolina and other Southern States, where the laws have recently been resisted. The reply has been ready for several days, and will be transmitted to the Senate to-day. It is understood that the President has gone to the trouble of collecting information from nearly all of the Southern States, especially North Carolina, Kentucky, Texas, Georgia, Tennessee, and Alabama. In Kentucky and Texas there is more lawlessness at the present time than in any former period in their history. In North Carolina, Tennessee, and Alabama the ex-rebels seems to have got the upper hand. All over the South there exists a secret political organization, recently organized, similar to the KuKlux. It is believed that all the outrages that have recently been committed there are the work of this association. The whole subject will most likely be referred to a special committee, with power to investigate and report at any time.

[From the New York Herald, Jan. 8.]

It seems to be certain that the President will send a special message to Congress at an early day, relating the authenticated cases of Ku Klux outrages in the South, and urging that there be a specific enactment making it a capital offence for parties of men to go masquerading about the country committing such crimes as are popularly attributed to the Democracy of the South. The message will extend further than the Ku Klux. It will certainly delay indefinitely all prospects of a general amnesty bill, and will most likely defeat the efforts of Governor Vance, of North Carolina, and the other elected Senators elect from Georgia, to secure their admission into the United States Senate. As a concession to extreme radicalism it will be apt to secure the support of Sumner in his political co-operators, and screen them from the ominous affiliation with the President himself. But whatever ills it may precipitate upon the people of the South, how can they themselves be to blame. The impeachment of Governor Holden, the election of a disloyal Senator in unpardoned rebel, to the exclusion of the Covington-Lee speech of Senator McCreary, and the State rights amnesty motion of Mr. Stevenson in the House, have all of them the radical and many conservative support, and the colour the impression that the power is still a dangerous one to place in the hands of the people of the late Confederacy. Some of the most active friends of the South have been driven from their support of a generous policy towards her by the fiendishly outcropping of malicious spirits, and the crafty old leaders of the Democracy, such as Davis, Bayard and Eldridge, have seen that their friends time and again that the result of their mistakes would be just as it has turned out.

Railroad Wharves at Oakland, California.

From the Stockton Co. Independent.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company has commenced to run the ferry boats for both passengers and freight from the end of the Oakland wharf to the wharves at San Francisco. On account of the recent extension of the wharf the ferriage will be shortened and about five minutes time saved on every trip. The steamer Thoroughfare, the new freight boat, made her first trip with a load of freight on Monday. This boat is 265 feet long, with 36 feet 6 inches breadth of beam. It is furnished with a double track on deck, and can carry sixteen freight cars or 800 tons each, and about one hundred passenger stock, for which ample pens are provided. The end of the Oakland wharf is three miles from the "T" of the Thoroughfare, and two and a half miles from the end of the passenger boats. The latter will cross from wharf to wharf in about seventeen minutes, and passengers coming east will reach Oakland Point in twenty seven minutes and Broadway station in thirty eight minutes. The time includes the improvement of the Oakland wharf and the commencement of the wharf, 11,000 feet long, running out to a depth of twenty-four feet at low tide and thirty-one feet at high tide, in front of the city of San Francisco, having twenty railroad tracks upon its last one thousand feet in width, carriage way, a spacious passenger depot, and railroad offices, warehouses and elevator storage for 40,000 tons of grain in the meantime, three large lookout towers, which will afford ample space for five of the largest steamers or ships that can afford, if not often seen even in this age of railroad and engineering wonders, but such a structure has just been completed by the Central Pacific Railroad Company.

This Company owns all the Oakland water front on which its vast wharves are built, has its own docks there capable as we have shown, of accommodating five of the largest clippers or steamers at a time. In future all grain, ores, wool, wine, and other merchandise that are to be shipped to Europe or elsewhere by water will be discharged into and shipped from the arks at the end of the company's wharf, while all steamers or sailing craft—those of the San Francisco Company alone excepted which come into that port with Oriental cargoes for the Atlantic States, will go direct to the company's docks and unload into the cars on the wharf. The heavy tolls, loss of time liable handling, and its nervous attendant costs will all be avoided.

Paris in Ruins.—The loss of a battle is what, but a single army of the immense army was engaged say it was 250,000 men, two hundred men [illegible] Paris, a city of two [illegible], into apparent consternation [illegible] the course of a few [illegible] Paris was anticipated by journals in this country and Great Britain. If such an event is allowed it will strongly contrast the American with the French style of fighting. In 1861 the United States allied but a large army to conquer the South which had more have to exceed six millions of white people as the Parisians have to overthrow the Empire of France with its forty millions of people. The objective point was Richmond, the South's capital. It was two hundred miles from Washington. Hardly any regular fortifications existed until the confines of Richmond were approached. Yet, with over one million of men in arms we failed to capture Richmond for four years. Army after army was [illegible] against it, commanded by our ablest officers. They were repeatedly beaten and driven back. Such was the way in which the American citizens in the South who were opposed to the Government contended for their capital. Unlike Paris, it had not have in its own population men sufficient to combat an army of hundreds of thousands. But the Southern people were especially in earnest, and fought in that spirit. If Paris is taken in a short time, it will be because the French nation is not united and will not rally in behalf of the Government. They have resources enough to keep all Europe at bay for years if they were united among themselves.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Gen. Hooker and Chief Justice Chase have both taken apartments in the same house, on Fifth Avenue, New York, a few doors from the Brevoort Hotel. Both of these gentlemen are patients of Dr. Hammond, formerly Surgeon-General of the United States, who has for some years given his attention exclusively to affections of the brain. Mr. Chase has lately enjoyed a slight improvement in his condition. Gen. Hooker, though still a sufferer from the effects of the paralytic stroke which he had four or five years ago, is in general fair health, but it is considered necessary that he should be kept free from mental excitement of any kind.

Secretary Boutwell has sent the following letter to a firm in Rochester: "In reply to your letter of the 30th ultimo, in relation to the redemption of United States bonds destroyed by fire, I have to inform you that the Secretary of the Treasury can not redeem United States securities prior to their maturity. Nor is he authorized to issue new bonds in lieu of those which may have been lost or destroyed. The relief you seek can only be afforded by special act of Congress in your behalf."

A man in Covington made a bet the other day that he could drink a pint and a half of Cincinnati whisky in twelve hours. He won the bet, and his widow remarked at the funeral next day that it was the first money he had earned by hard work in ten years.

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, Oregon, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of twenty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim has attached prior to the withdrawal by the Government of the lands coterminous with the first fifty miles of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at the date of February 16, 1870. The second division of location of line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have settled pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary, he can sell the land or mortgage it, he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and instances of his having to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim, he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Office, and a plat of the same filed in the Land Office.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect. T. H. MOORES,
Land Agent O. & C. R. R. Co., Salem

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering on a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible doubt-destroying diseases, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible doubt-destroying diseases, as that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most mysterious cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Semi-Impotency.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of painful symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Hollow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to female society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, maras
